

Beau Beery

Named 2009

“Dean of Commercial
Real Estate”

AMJ Inc. of Gainesville has announced that Beau Beery, its Director of Commercial Brokerage & Asset Management, has received the 2009 “Dean of Commercial Real Estate” Award presented by the Gainesville Alachua County Association of Realtors (GACAR). The prestigious annual award recognizes the most outstanding overall commercial Realtor who contributed the most to furthering the commercial real estate profession. This was the 1st year of the award, setting a precedent for future commercial real estate leaders in Alachua County. Beery was presented with the award at the GACAR Commercial Investment Awards Ceremony on December 7th at 1780 NW 80th Blvd in Gainesville, Florida.

Beery recently served as the 2009 GACAR Commercial Investment Chair, where he tripled monthly attendance, brought in top notch speakers for the year, began an affiliate sponsorship program, and created an annual commercial real estate awards system. He also currently serves as the Director of the Gainesville/Ocala UF Friends & Alumni of Real Estate (UF-FARE) organization and is the Gainesville Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) liaison to the North Florida Chapter. Beery is a very active alumni for UF’s graduate real estate students, having done several lectures, job placements, and mentoring for the program. Beery also writes commercial real estate related articles for various trade magazines, newspapers, and periodicals.

In his role with UF-FARE, Beery created two highly regarded annual events, the UF-FARE Beach Retreat and the UF-FARE Town Hall Meeting. Both events are out of the box networking and educational events attended by hundreds of local and non-local real estate professionals.
